Richmond School District Profile

Richmond School District is a modern, well-equipped government accredited educational organization, which maintains high academic standards. The district operates ten (10) secondary and thirty-seven (37) elementary schools in the City of Richmond.

Recent student assessments conducted internationally have demonstrated that British Columbia 15 year olds have among the highest reading scores in the world. Richmond students are equivalent to Hong Kong and Finland in Mathematics and similar to Hong Kong and Korea in Science disciplines.

Richmond high school graduates do very well on provincial examinations and often earn bursaries and scholarships for post secondary study that are accepted to the most prestigious universities throughout the world.

In addition to Summer Study Experiences, Richmond District offers full credit International Education Programs at each of the ten secondary schools.

Students 13 thru 17 years of age may be interested in joining hundreds of other International students from all over the world in attending a Richmond Secondary School for full time study.
